Select Telecom Welcomes Rick Cool as Senior Account Executive

Valhalla, N.Y. (January 12, 2009)—Select Telecom, a telecommunications provider specializing in video surveillance cameras, telephone and voice mail installation with IP telephones, and data networking solutions, today announced Rick Cool joined the company as a Senior Account Executive covering Fairfield, New Haven and Hartford counties in Connecticut as well as Southern and Western sections of Massachusetts.

“We are thrilled to welcome Rick to our company,” said Mike Durante, President and CEO of Select Telecom. “He is energetic and involved in the community. Our clients will certainly benefit from his vast experience and expertise in the telecommunications field.”

Cool, a Naugatuck, Conn. resident is a member of the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Membership Director at Valley Business Network. He formerly held a Senior Account Executive Position at Business Electronics, Inc. in Cheshire, Conn. and holds a Bachelors of Science in Management from American International College.

“Select Telecom’s expertise in IP telephony and its positive record of customer care attracted me to this company,” Cool said. “I’m thrilled to join a team of professionals driven for great results.”

Select Telecom is located at 115 Wall Street in Valhalla. For more information, visit www.select-tele.com or call 914.761.1313.
